

House Resolution No. 148

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youth whose achievements thus far in life admirably illustrate their abilities as lifelong learners and their potential as future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Jessica Conn of Aurora has attained considerable distinction as a student at Aurora High School where she has developed and maintained an exemplary reputation for her 4.28 grade point average, dual credit hours from Central Methodist College, and eight credits from a summer session at Southwest Missouri State University; and

Whereas, Jessica Conn will enhance her already impressive record of accomplishments when she receives the Top Dawg Student Award from the Aurora Chamber of Commerce at its Appreciation Banquet on January 22, 2005; and

Whereas, a senior who will graduate from Aurora High School in May 2005, Jessica Conn has been intricately involved with Missouri Scholars Academy, the National Society of High School Scholars, National Honor Society, Missouri Academic All-State volleyball teams, Student Council, Newspaper and Yearbook, her church youth group, TREND, volleyball, basketball, and track; and

Whereas, Jessica Conn also deserves mention of her work as a volunteer at a Right to Life booth and school Blood Drives, as a trainer for Altar Servers at church, and as a DARE role model; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Jessica Conn is an Academic Letter winner, Athletic Letter holder, and officer in numerous organizations, and is featured in Who's Who Among American High School Students; and

Whereas, Jessica Conn is justifiably proud to be known as the beloved daughter of Tony and Kathy Conn who truly have been supportive and encouraging in all of her life's endeavors:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Jessica Conn for an Aurora Chamber of Commerce Top Dawg Student Award and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jessica Conn of Aurora, Missouri.
